50X1-HUM

1. The Chinese Communist military authorities in southern Chekiang are sending food northward* and are recruiting able-bodied men, ages 18-35, for military training.
2. After their training, the recruits will be organized into local militia. The original local militia will then be reorganized to release for duty the district military forces, which in turn will be reorganized into garrison regiments to reinforce regular Chinese Communist Army troops.
3. The Chinese Communists are intensifying their attacks on guerrillas in the Chekiang coastal regions. Five Communist warships were based at Taishan Island (122-00, 30-00), which is largely occupied by guerrillas from the 7 Column of the Chinese Anti-Communist Salvation Army.

* Comment. similar northward shipments of food from the Canton area.
